Social Security Number
As a condition of eligibility, the CHIP Agency must require individuals who have a social security number or are eligible for one as determined by the Social Security Administration, to furnish their social security number, or numbers if they have more than one number.
The CHIP Agency requires individuals, as a condition of eligibility, to furnish their social security number(s), with the following exceptions:
Individuals refusing to obtain a social security number (SSN) because of well established religious objections, or Individuals who are not eligible for an SSN, or Individuals who are issued an SSN only for a valid non-work purpose.
The CHIP Agency assists individuals, who are required to provide their SSN, to apply for or obtain an SSN from the Social Security Administration if the individual does not have or forgot their SSN.
The CHIP Agency informs individuals required to provide their SSN:
By what statutory authority the number is solicited; and
How the state will use the SSN.
The CHIP Agency provides assurance that it will verify each SSN furnished by an applicant or beneficiary with the Social Security Administration, not deny or delay services to an otherwise eligible applicant pending issuance or verification of the individual's SSN by the Social Security Administration and that the state's utilization of the SSNs is consistent with sections 205 and 1137 of the Social Security Act and the Privacy Act of 1974.
The state may request non-applicant household members to voluntarily provide their SSN, if the state meets the requirements below.
The state requests non-applicant household members to voluntarily provide their Yes
When requesting an SSN for non-applicant household members, the state assures that:
At the time such SSN is requested, the state informs the non-applicant that this information is voluntary and provides information regarding how the SSN will be used; and
The state only uses the SSN for determination of eligibility for CHIP or other insurance affordability programs, or for a purpose directly connected with the administration of the state plan.

Separate Child Health Insurance Program  General Eligibility - Continuous Eligibility
2105(a)(4)(A) of the SSA and 42 CFR 457.342 and 435.926
The CHIP Agency may provide that children who have been determined eligible under the state plan shall remain eligible, regardless of any changes in the family's circumstances, during a continuous eligibility period up to 12 months, or until the time the child reaches an age specified by the state (not to exceed age 19), whichever is earlier.
The CHIP Agency elects to provide continuous eligibility to children under this provision. Yes
For children up to age 19
C For children up to age
The continuous eligibility period begins on the effective date of the child's most recent determination or redetermination of eligibility, and ends:
At the end of the 12 months continuous eligibility period.
Exceptions to the continuous eligibility period:
■ The child attains the age specified by the state Agency or age 19.
■ The child or child's representative requests voluntary disenrollment.
■ The child is no longer a resident of the state.
The Agency determines that eligibility was erroneously granted at the most recent determination or renewal of eligibility because of Agency error or fraud, abuse, or perjury attributed to child or child's representative.
The child dies.
There is a failure to pay required premiums or enrollment fees on behalf of a child, as provided for in the state plan.
