Application, Determination of Eligibility and Furnishing Medicaid

- 1) The following components of Medicaid eligibility are determined under the Express Lane option. Also, specify any differences in budget unit, deeming, income exclusions, income disregards, or other methodology between Medicaid eligibility determinations for such children in the determination under the Express Lane Option.

For children, the Medicaid agency will accept the household unit, deeming, income and resource methodologies as applied by the SNAP program. Children shall be granted Non-Cash Categorical Eligibility based on the Income and Resource disregards described in Supplement 5 to Attachment 2.6-A.

- 2) Check off and describe the option used to satisfy the Screen and Enroll requirement before a child may be enrolled under Title XXI.

There is no separate Title XXI program in the United States Virgin Islands.

- (3) Check off if the State/Territory elects the option of automatic enrollment without a Medicaid application, based on data obtained from other sources and with the child's or family's affirmative consent to the child's Medicaid enrollment
- (4) Check off if the State/Territory elects the option to rely on a finding from an Express Lane agency that includes gross income or adjusted gross income shown by State income tax records or returns.
